Dear Professional Colleague,

I am so pleased to announce the opening of Prudential Preferred Properties' new office location on the 19th floor of the Neiman Marcus building. I know I speak for all of the PPP sales professionals in my office when I say that we are thrilled to be a part of this wonderful real estate community.

Now that we are settled into our beautiful new space, we invite you to celebrate with us and share in our excitement. Please see the invitation opposite this note. We look forward to seeing you soon!

Sincerely,

Patricia A. Mazzone
